

Sheena Maclaine

Ms. Sheena Maclaine is a second-generation Cavalier breeder of champions (Pennygown/ Lochbuie). She served as the chairman of The Cavalier King Charles Spaniel Club in Britain. She is currently President of the club (since 2022) and The Royal Kennel Club's Breed Health Coordinator. Sheena has bred and owned several champions in the breed and is still actively breeding and showing together with her husband Mr. Andy Vella. She is a breed specialist judge and has judged in many national specialties all over the world. As a breed's Royal Kennel Club Health coordinator, she is actively involved in the new health program and research.